By Tahoma Literary Review

Tahoma Literary Review. Paperback. Condition: New. 180 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Tahoma Literary Review is a literary journal published three times a year in both print and e-reader formats. We are based in the Pacific Northwest, but we are international in scope. We at Tahoma Literary Review are committed to producing a literary journal from the professional writers perspective; we feel that writers deserve compensation for the weeks or months it takes to compose a publishable poem or story. A major goal of Tahoma Literary Review is to show that writers and publishers can support each other not only artistically, but also financially. We believe in a collaborative publication model. Literary journals that pay their contributors are rare; most journals offer only exposure, a somewhat questionable concept in a landscape that is crowded with writers, but sadly limited by lack of recognition in mainstream culture. A substantial number of journals now hold contests, with entry fees typically in the 15 to 30 range usually with one winner, and maybe a few finalist prizes instead of paying all contributors. Our model attempts to find a middle ground that is more equitable. TLR offers both professional payment and exposure to our contributors...

Reviews

A top quality publication and also the font employed was interesting to learn. It is really simplistic but excitement within the fifty percent from the book. Its been designed in an remarkably basic way in fact it is only following i finished reading this pdf where in fact changed me, modify the way i believe.

-- Rachel Stiedemann

The publication is great and fantastic. It can be filled with knowledge and wisdom You wont truly feel monotony at at any moment of your time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).

-- Dr. Marcos Grimes III
