I wrote some little while ago to Cyril, giving him an account of the routine here. Doubtless he showed you some of my letter, which after all was not very exciting: well, we are still at the same old round--though it may be broken soon, --so that shall be my excuse for a little bavardage and a letter of generalities. Your Spirit of Man has been invaluable, and I have begun on it again: it certainly goes up into the trenches with me. On the way out I bought Dostoieffsky s Le Crime et le Chatiment, which has kept me absorbed ever since, though I have finished it now. It reminds one of Le Disciple, and is at least as good: though everybody does such impossible things-- e.g.: La jeune fille poussa un cri.-- Hum! dit Raskolnikoff.--...
