Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Ideal Catholic Readers: First Reader During the years of primary training, everything in the work of the school should tend to develop gradually and naturally the mind of the child. Nothing too difficult, abstruse, or un interesting, should be placed before him. On the contrary, each step in his mental training should be so arranged as to appeal most strongly to his youthful nature; for, when the interest of the child is once aroused by a pretty picture or a well-told story, the development of his intellectual faculties will progress naturally and rapidly.
