He says: I reached Kansas, and entered upon the discharge of my official duties in the most gloomy hour of her history. Desolation and ruin reigned on every hand; homes and firesides were deserted; the smoke of burning dwellings darkened the atmosphere; women and children, driven from their habitations, wandered over tli prairies and among the woodlands, or sought refuge and protection even among the Indian tribes. The highways were infested with numerous pre datory bands, and the towns were fortified and garrisoned by armies of conflicting partizans, each excited almost to frenzy, and determined upon mutual extermination. )Such was, without exaggeration, the condition of the Territory at the period of my arrival. In Lawrence, where the people had resorted from the country for security, the masses were subsisting on just what foraging parties could pick up through...
