iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book will be a special gift for cancer survivors to feel a sense of pride and accomplishment in that they have conquered cancer. -Dr. Alice Ross, author of Utilizing Peace Education Concepts to Improve Teaching and Learning A must-read for all cancer survivors, Cancer: My Gift of Self-Actualization will lift you up, heighten your awareness, and give you a sense of strength, hope, and empowerment. After her breast cancer diagnosis 14 years ago, author Rose Marie Duhon-Sells felt trapped in a cycle of pity, denial, and fear. But through her devout faith and the power of prayer, she overcame her defeatist attitude and beat the odds. Drawing on her experience, Duhon-Sells encourages survivors to look at cancer not as a punishment, but as a disease that all human beings are susceptible to. With empathy, love, and encouragement, Duhon-Sells articulates the important function that the strength and faith of a cancer survivor plays in the healing process and emphasizes the crucial roles of family members, friends, and acquaintances of individuals diagnosed with the disease. Create a sense of hope and a vision of survival with Cancer: My Gift of Self-Actualization !.
