Not illustrated. 1890 Excerpt: .of the sweet past, That mere despair said: This cold look and touch Must be the cruel last. If he had known her eyes so cold and bright, Watching the sunset s red, Held back within their deeps of purple light A storm of tears unshed. If he had known the keenly barbed jest, With such hard lightness thrown, Cut through the hot, proud heart within her breast Before it pierced his own. If she had known that when her calm glance swept Him as she passed him by, His blood was fire, his pulses madly leapt Beneath her careless eye. If she had known that when he touched her hand. And felt it still and cold, There closed round his wrung heart the iron band Of misery untold. If she had known that when her laughter rang In scorn of sweet past days, His very soul shook with a deadly pang Before her light dispraise. If she had known that every poisoned dart, If she had understood That each sunk to the depths of his man s heart And drew the burning blood. If she had known that when in the wide west The sun sank gold and red, He whispered bitterly: T is like the rest, The warmth and light have fled. If she had known the longing and the pain, If she had only guessed, --One look--one word--and she perhaps had lain Silent upon his breast. If she had known how oft when...
