paperback. Condition: New. Ship out in 2 business day, And Fast shipping, Free Tracking number will be provided after the shipment. Pages Number: 443 Publisher: Electronic Industry Pub. Date :2010-01-01 first edition this book to apply for the direction to the practical goal to tell the MATLAB neural network. a brief introduction to neural networks a variety of typical network and training process. focuses on the application of MATLAB neural network toolbox neural network design and application. supplemented by a large number of practical examples and integrated applications. Introduction to MATLAB chapter from the book. chapter. and neural networks to improve neural network composed of an integrated combat chapter 3. Introduction chapter introduces MAILAB MATLAB software. basic computing. graphics rendering. program design and Simulink simulation; neural network to improve the main article about the neural network. including neural network toolbox and GUI tools. as well as perception. linear. BP. diameter to the base. self-organization. feedback in a variety of neural network. about all kinds of neural network performance analysis and intuitive graphical results. so that the reader a more thorough understanding of the performance of various neural networks and their advantages and disadvantages. so as to achieve understanding and The purpose of application of neural networks. Articles through a comprehensive integrated real examples about using MATLAB to analyze and solve specific neural network. including neural network optimization. control. fault diagnosis and prediction of typical applications. but also about the Simulink design and custom neural network neural network. Book is concise language. example. explain clearly. for computer. information processing. control. geophysics. medicine. management and other professional undergraduate and graduate students as teaching materials and reference books to use neural networks. but also for the appropriate engineering and technical personnel use and reference. Contents: Introduction to MATLAB first chapter Chapter 1 Overview of...
