Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Anne E G Nydam, Trintje Nydam (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When the cows are stolen from a nearby farm, Sam and Kate think it s a job for the police. until they realize that solving this strange crime will require help from the neighborhood birds and beasts. That means it s another adventure for Kate and Sam, the only humans who can speak animal language and know the secret of the magical creatures around town. But why does the strange thief steal a cow-spotted mailbox? How many thieves are there anyway? And most mysterious of all, what kind of monster is leaving huge, round footprints that smell like cheese? It s a good thing Kate and Sam get help from animals large and small as they struggle to solve these puzzles and rescue all the prisoners of the Cheesemonster. There will be beetles and robots, dragons and fairies, monsters and clues and disguises. But never fear! Through darkest night and deepest swamp Sam, Kate, and their friends old and new will use all their creativity, courage, and common sense to save the day once again. The third adventure in the Kate and Sam trilogy joins the others as a perfect read-aloud to be enjoyed with children of many ages. Emphasizing the power of kindness, creativity and courage, these books are gentle enough for pre-schoolers at bedtime, but complex, humorous, and engaging enough not only for older elementary children, but even for adults reading to them.
