Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Angela Simpson is a grunt reporter at a prestigious music magazine called Rocked. She has been trying to work her way up the reporting totem pole towards interviewing rock stars themselves. Her big break finally comes but the band in question is not the Carpenters, the band she has followed since childhood. Instead, they are a dirty gritty rock band that just so happens to be at the top of the charts. She is skeptical but takes on the assignment. At the beginning, she is terrified of them, having never spent any time with people like this. She has no clue what she is in for. Only one of the bandmates seems to go out of his way to ease her insecurities. She finds him quite different from the rest of the band. She can talk to him but there is more to him than just his politeness. Getting an interview from him, however, is another story. The assignment proves to be harder than she ever imagined. Can she handle it?.
