Brand New Book. Excerpt from Latin School Register, Vol. 57: May 1938 We live in a rapid age. All about us we sense and, through the newsreels, we see history being made in a fast-moving, palpitant chain of events. Even as this is written, governments fall, nations triumph, the bombs of war burst in their hate and fury. The wires sing with news; the rapid fire of the pressroom typewriter is never silent; the crescendo of the newsboy is still more loud. And we, enriched with an introduction to the vast field of world affairs, are eager to learn facts; to interpret them. We are eager to keep up to date our knowledge of contemporary events. Yet when we turn to the press, our only means of so doing, what a muddle we find. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
