White Magnolia (Paperback)

By Chloe Dee Noble

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. White Magnolia is a novel featuring four generations and takes place in Great Britain, Ireland, Italy, France, and the United States. The story begins in Russia with a literature professor. He meets Irish poet William Butler Yeats when he attends the professor s lecture series at Oxford University. The professor s daughter has a relationship with Yeats and is with him in France when he dies. At his funeral she meets Winston Churchill who is there to assist the French underground to help Jews and creatives to safety. She stays in France with the host family and works with French underground during World War II. She meets her husband at the farm in France where he is escaping Hitler s fury. The story unfolds in Brooklyn and San Francisco during the Vietnam War, and Los Angeles, Mexico, Hawaii and New Orleans as it brings in other family members and significant characters. This paperback novel has 244 suspense filled pages about love, hate, revenge, angst, prejudice, evil, goodness, mercy, suicide and murder. NOTE: When I published the novel Della Robbia...
