Finally, let me point out that this hearing represents the first in a series designed to investigate reconstruction efforts and the ongoing security challenges in Afghanistan. Upon the Senates return from recess, the committee will host a meeting with Chairman Hamid Karzai. Dr. Karzai has provided important leadership to Afghanistan at a critical time in its history. It will be a great privilege to have him with us for that meeting. We look forward to the witnesses this morning and I call now upon our first witness, the Honorable David Johnson, for his report. Thank you, sir. The prepared statement of Senator Lugar follows: Opening Statement of Senator Richard G. Lugar Today the Committee meets to review U. S. policy toward Afghanistan and our ongoing efforts to assist that country in recovering from the damage incurred under the rule of the Taliban, and from former tenants such as Osama bin Laden and al-Qaeda. In the months ahead, the United States will be focusing increased attention on threats posed by Iraq and North Korea,...
