By -

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 244 x 174 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. While the provision in Children's and Young People's Services endures much change and turbulence, the calling for well qualified and critically reflective practitioners remains ever present. This innovative and accessible core textbook explores the key themes, ideas, concepts and topics that are central to practitioners working across the 0-19 sector. It aims to help students develop the professional knowledge, practical skills and core values they need to work effectively with children and young people. Clearly divided into four sections; the practitioner, the learner, the workplace and the community, the book covers a broad range of issues including: * The different roles and responsibilities of the workforce * Multi-agency working and its challenges * Working with parents, carers and the community * Supporting children with additional needs and meeting the needs of gifted learners * Work-based reflective practice * Language learning and communication At each stage the book facilitates opportunities for personal and professional reflection, discussion, debate and action through case studies, activities, reflective tasks, areas for further consideration, and annotated further readings. The text also features a glossary...
