THE COMPLETE POETICAL WORKS OF WILLIAM WORDSWORTH VOLUME 3

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 56 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. : U. S. Government Accountability Office, 2005 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)60775869 Subject: Unfunded mandates -- United States -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . Despite the widespread view in several sectors that UMRAs narrow coverage leaves out federal actions with potentially significant impacts on nonfederal entities, there was less agreement by parties about how to address this issue. The options ranged from general to specific but those most frequently suggested were: Generally revisit, amend, or modify the definitions, exceptions, and exclusions under UMRA and expand its coverage. Clarify UMRAs definitions and ensure their consistent implementation across agencies to ensure that all covered provisions are being included. Change the cost thresholds and or definitions that trigger UMRA by for example lowering the threshold for legislative or executive reviews and expanding cost definitions from beyond direct to cover indirect costs as well. Eliminate or amend the definitional exceptions for conditions of federal financial assistance or that arise from participation in voluntary federal programs. Expand UMRA coverage to all preemptions of state and local laws and regulations, including those nonfiscal preemptions of state and local authority. The level of agreement for each suggested option varied across sectors. The first option came from parties in every sector except public interest advocacy. Although parties representing businesses did not comment on preemption during our data collection, the business sector has generally been in favor of federal preemptions for reasons such as standardizing regulation across state and local jurisdictions. ( See appendix V for a more complete list of suggested options by theme. ) The results of our January symposium confirmed support for generally revisiting and expanding UMRA coverage. See appendix VI for a list of the symposium results. The...
