Y. PESTIS

Paperback. Condition: New. 100 pages. Sean McVean returns in this third, fact-based novel of terror and deception to confront his old nemesis, Raschid Nurideen, in a tale that plays out from the gentle Low Country of South Carolina to the frigid clime of an isolated island off the Newfoundland coast. Reverend Buford T. Miller wants to lead his parishioners-his Colonists to a new life, away from government interference and the corrupting influences of the outside world, closer to the values...
